MSW Semester System Course Learning Outcome

Session-2023-25

Paper I/CC1

Social Work History and Ideology-Indian Perspective

Learning outcome:

To develop the better understanding about History of Social works in India. They can acquire the knowledge about the concept of Social work, various agencies and institution of Social work. They can also acquire the knowledge about various Ideology for Social change in Ancient, medieval Indian Society. The Student will able to understand factors and agencies and also ideology of Social change.

Paper II/CC2

Population & Environment

Learning outcome:

To understand population and their characteristics. To understand environment and life sustaining. To understand poverty and their socio-economic impact on society. To understand natural resources and their benefits. To understand how to use waste material. How to destroy waste. To understand environmental laws and acts. How to use laws and acts for environment prevention and protection.

Paper III/CC3

Working with Groups / Group Work

Learning outcome:

Development of conceptual understanding of Social Group work in Students. Helpful for the students in understanding development of deferent social group work of India and world level. Capacity development of understanding and skill of analyzing the theories in Social group work. Skill development of students about the Challenges of Social group work and identifying its Solution factors.

Paper IV/CC4

Social Work Research – Qualitative Method

Learning outcome:

To Development understanding about Qualitative and Quantitative Research._They can also acquire the knowledge about various tools & techniques of Social research._To Development better understanding about Social Work Research.

Paper V/CC5

Human Growth and Development
Learning outcome:

Develop an overall understand of the principles of growth, their relevance and application to behavior at various phases in the life span. Students understand of the develop sensitivity towards needs, developmental tasks and health status along with need for developmental programmes for the seme. Apply the information of growth, development and health in social work practice in general and to individuals, groups and communities in particular. Understand the implication of the family norms for status of individuals and development, opportunities in the family by age and gender. Encourage to study the process of family socialization and understand family norms, ecology and dynamics.

Paper VI/CC6

Social Work History and Ideology-Western Perspective

Learning outcome:

Students understand about social work in western Countries. Students gain knowledge about charity developments, historical perspective in western countries. To develop the knowledge about Social work in various situation of western countries.

Paper VII/CC7

Political Economy of Development

Learning outcome:

To understand political economy and importance of studies of political economy. To understand Gandhian model of development To understand modernization concept and their merits and demerits.

Paper VIII/CC8

Process and Evaluation of Group Formation

Learning outcome:

Students gain knowledge about the social group formation and its process. Developing of understanding skill of social group formulation phase. Capacity development of student about planning and programme of social group formation. The Students get knowledge of Evaluation and termination pattern of social group work.

Paper IX/CC9

Social Work Research – Qualitative Method

Learning outcome:

To Development understanding about Qualitative and Quantitative Research. They can also acquire the knowledge about various tools & techniques of Social research. To Development better understanding about Social Work Research.

Paper X/P1

Social Work Practicum

Learning outcome:

Paper XI/CC10

Sociology for Social Work in India

Learning outcome:

To understand the basic concept of sociology for Social work. To understand the role of sociology for Social work in India. To develop understanding about the theory of society and its importance in Social Work and to understand the social work in the context of Sociology.

Paper XII/CC11

Social Work Personnel – Training and Development

Learning outcome:

4

Understand the concept of training .needs of training. To understand curriculum design. What is the role of curriculum in student's life. to understand how to make educational curriculum. To understand the relationship between education and technology. Concept of educational technology ,tools techniques and methods of educational technology. To understand effective training programme, short term course and their benefits in human life. To understand how to evaluation of training.

Paper XIII/CC12
Family Social Work
Learning outcome:

The students will understand about the basic institution of the societies. Students understand the social structure, Values, Norms and various issues in the family.

Paper XIV/CC13
Paper Social Policy in India
Learning outcome:

Developing conceptual understanding of social policy in student. Gaining knowledge about the constitutional provision of social policy in India. Developing understanding capacity of unified and integrated policy formulation process in India. Development of skills of students related to formulation and evaluation of social policy. By studying of this paper helps students to enhance knowledge about constitutional provisions and also they get knowledge about history and perspective of social policy.

Paper XV/CC14
Legal System in India
Learning outcome:

Developing the conceptual understanding of Legal system in India. To Understand the role of legal system in Indian Society. Better understanding about Fundamental Rights and Duties Supports Students to know about the coordination between legal system and society in India. Developing student's capacity about legal knowledge and work as legal social worker.

███████████

Paper XVI/CC15

Social Control and Change in India

Learning outcome:

To Understand the basic concept of Social Control and Social Change. To Understand the role of Social Control and Social Change for Social work in India. To develop Understanding about the theory of Social Control and Social Change and its importance in Social Work. To understand the social work in the context of Social Control and Social Change.

Paper XVII/CC16

Social Development

Learning outcome:

Developing the conceptual understanding Social Development. To understand the role of Development in Indian Society. Better understanding about Development issues in India. Developing student's capacity about better understanding of development issues and its impact on society. To understand the development and issues of SC, S.T. & women in India.

Paper XVIII/CC17

Social Planning in India

Learning outcome:

Developing the conceptual understanding of Social development. Development of skill of scope identification and ideology of social planning. Knowledge gain of planning process and Constitutional Provision of Indian federal system. Supports Students to know about the coordination between centre and state in planning process. Developing student's capacity of planning machinery, Monitoring and evaluation.

Paper IXX/CC18

Integrated Social Work Practice

Learning outcome:

To Understand the concept of Social work and social system. To Understand the role of individual, group, family and community and organization in social work. To Understand the environmental and system approach. To Understand the social work in the context of role theory
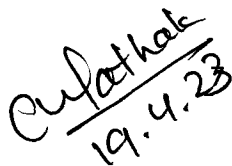

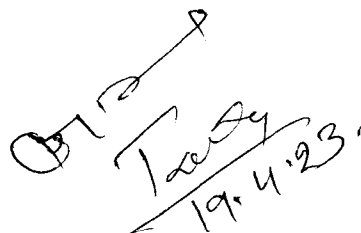

Paper XX/P2

Research Project with Block Placement and Field Work Report.

Learning outcome:

Students will be placed in an agency setting : FNGOs, MNGOs, NNGOs, INGOs, for the prescribed field work purpose. Students will be aske to study and understand the organizational structure, service delivery system and administrations of the agency. Students will be make to learn fund raising, establishing rapport and public relation, making project proposals, project implementation and project cycle. Students will be make to learn appropriate record maintenance and reporting.