Objective: Gender sensitization is a basic requirement to understand the sensitive needs of a particular gender. It helps us to examine our personal attitudes and beliefs and questions the 'realities' that we thought we know. The need for this sensitivity has been felt and realized always and in almost all kinds of human existence, across the globe. Recent discourses focus upon the need to sensitize gender issues on campus as many believe that education is the catalyst for change. Educational space instills thought and makes one have a perception that they believe. Gender issue can be sensitized in educational institution through various activities like debates, discussion, seminars, theatrical performances and other forms of arts. The institution should be well prepared to handle and respond to gender sensitive issues and provide an environment where boys and girls can work together with a sense of personal security and dignity. This workshop will help participants gender sensitive environment in their institution.

Target Group: All faculty of University/College Teachers. Part time/ Adhoc/temporary/contract teachers also can participate in the Program to enhance their skills.
