UGC coaching boon for job aspirants in Raipur

Third batch of PSC aspirants soon

Raipur, Mar 01: Special coaching classes for competitive examinations, sponsored by the University Grant Commission (UGC) for students of the reserved category, are proving to be a boon for the youths of economically weaker families.

The special coaching classes for State Service Preliminary Examination conducted by Chhattisgarh Public Service Commission has begun from December 27 and about 300 students including 48 from Scheduled Caste, 46 from Scheduled Tribe, 125 from other backward classes and 6 from minority communities are attending classes, said UGC Coaching Scheme Coordinator Professor Dr KL Verma while talking to Central Chronicle on Thursday. Soon third batch will be started due to increasing number of aspirants, he added.

Subject experts Professor LS Nigam, Dr GK Deshmukhi, AK Sahu, Dr AR Khan, Mithilesh Mishra, Anil Tiwari, YK Adil, Girish Singh and DC Patel are extending their services.

Apart from it, computer training and spoken English classes are being also held. The centre has also invited application for special coaching classes for National Eligibility Test (NET) examination to be held in June. The students from all categories can take benefit of the special coaching classes, said Dr Verma. "I was unaware about my career before I joined the special UGC classes at Pt Ravishankar Shukla University. But I think it as a boon for poor students who cannot go outside to prepare for various competitive examinations free," said Sarita Bhagat, a candidate who aspires to join State Service.
