

Report on Parent-Teacher Meeting 2024

Parent-Teacher meeting was organized at Centre for Basic Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, Chhattisgarh on 16th November 2024. Program was co-ordinated by Dr. Veenu Joshi. The program started by Dr. Joshi welcoming and briefly explaining the goals and significance of PTM to the gathering of parents and students. After this there was welcome address by Prof. Kallol K. Ghosh, Director, Centre for Basic Sciences. He welcomed everyone and provided an overview of New Education Policy (NEP) 2020, curriculum, schedule for theory and practical classes, dissertation program, achievements of students. Taking the program forward, Dr. Laxmikant Chaware spoke about the achievements of the students at the state and national level. Dr. Govind Prasad Sahu spoke about maintaining discipline by the students. During the program, parents shared their views with the teachers and praised the organization for the program. The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Veenu Joshi. Parents of total 21 students attended the program. There were separate counters made for each subject so the parents and students separately interacted with the teachers of the respective subjects and inquired about the educational activities and progress of the students.

Feedback was also taken by all the parents. Parents appreciated the activities carried out by the Center and given few suggestions also regarding the dissertation carried by the students and their accommodation facilities, hostel facilities and inquired about the future prospects of the courses.

Parallel to this program, Anand Mela was also organized by the students in which the students, their parents and teachers and students of other department also participated and enjoyed.

The Anand Mela was inaugurated by Honorable Vice Chancellor Prof. Sachchidanand Shukla and Honorable Secretary Chhattisgarh State Higher Education Shri R Prasanna. Honorable Vice chancellor and Honorable Secretary addressed the students and interacted with them about the schemes of Chhattisgarh State and encouraged the students for research work. Honorable Vice Chancellor Prof. Sachchidanand Shukla and Honorable Secretary also visited different stalls of the Anand Mela and appreciated the students. Program ended with the thanks extended by Director CBS, Prof. Kallol K Ghosh.
